READINGS: (Nov. 13) Mal 3:19-20a Ps 98:5-9 2 Thes 3:7-12 Lk 21:5-19
Jesus teaches that his disciples will be persecuted as a necessary prelude to the parousia. Through their perseverance, they will emerge victorious when the Lord comes again. As we await the Day, let us conscientiously fulfill our Christian obligations.

Dear Parishioners:

Upright granite pieces have been installed for the St. Joseph's statue that will stand to the rear of the rectory. The new statue of St. Joseph is being carved in Vermont. The air conditioner replacement project is 100 percent complete. New air units, new lines and other components are in place and ready for the 2017 cooling season. Installation of new windows has been completed at Education Center/Food Pantry. Exterior work will be done shortly on non-brick areas. The rectory exterior walls were repaired and painted. This follows painting of the two-car garage and the large storage building. Some new blacktopping also was put in place. Thanks to Bernie Gavlick and Bob Gorski, new LED flood lights have been installed on the front of the church to light up the steps and sidewalk. Meanwhile, fabrication of steel continues for the steps replacement. We appreciate your patience and cooperation. As necessary, use alternate entrances. Please exercise caution in work areas.

Thank you to all who donated toward the improvements. Please continue to support our Parish Projects…Please make checks payable to St. Leo's/Holy Rosary Dedicated Fund. Let us join hands together to do God's work. May God's love and blessings be with you always.
